The Road to Emmaus (Luke 24: 13-35)

The Road to Emmaus

Two of Jesus' followers were walking towards a village called Emmaus. It was about 7 miles away from Jerusalem.

While they walked, they were talking about everything that had happened in the last few days and how Jesus had been arrested and killed. They couldn't understand how his body had disappeared from the tomb.

Suddenly they were joined by another man, who was walking to Emmaus too. It was Jesus but the two men did not know who he was.

Jesus asked the two men what they were discussing. The two men looked very sad. Cleopas, who was one of the men said 'Are you the only person in Jerusalem who does not know what has happened there?'

"What things?" asked Jesus.

"About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet and powerful in what he said and did. The chief priests and our rulers handed him over and he was killed. We had hoped he would restore Israel. And today is the third day. He said he would rise by the third day."

The men continued to explain.

"Then our women amazed us. They went to the tomb and said his body had disappeared. Then they told us they had seen angels who had said he was alive! Our friends went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said it was, but they did not see Jesus anywhere".

Jesus said to them, "How foolish you have been! How slow to believe everything the prophets have said! The Saviour had to suffer all that and then people could see his glory!"

When the men reached the village, Jesus was going to continue on his journey, but the men said, "It is nearly night. Stay with us." Jesus agreed.

Later, when they were about to eat, Jesus took the bread, gave thanks and broke it. Suddenly, they recognised him! Then He disappeared from their sight.

They realised who He was and said, "Did our hearts not burn within us while He told us what the Scriptures had meant?"

They realised that talking to him had affected them.

Immediately they set off to Jerusalem to tell the disciples.

They said 'It is true, the Lord has risen and appeared to us'. Then they told the others everything that had happened, and explained that when Jesus had broken the bread, they had truly recognised him.
